He gave all his means to endeavor to save the bank from ruin, and retired into poverty and took to drink with the above result.

Appointment of Committees.

New York, Dec. 20 .- The Graphic's Washington special says: Speaker Keifer seems to have some trouble over the formation of his committees, and the more he works over it the more per plexing it becomes. It is generally un-derstood that Kelly will be made Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, and Hiscock of the Committee on Appropriations. It also seems definitely settled that Reed, of Maine, will have the chairmanship of the Com-mittee on Judiciary. There has been a good deal of discussion as to the dispo-sition of the Commerce Committee. General Henderson, of Illinois, Amos Townsend, of Ohio, and Page, of Cal-ifornia, have been urged for positions. It seems now that Page will be the man. Ohio will not have a first-clas committee, it is said, but lesser ones and good places on more important committees. Neat, it is believed, will have the chairmanship of the Committee on the District of Columbia, and General Young the chairmanship of the Claims Committee. It is thought that probably Cameron of Illinois, will be given the chairmanship of the Postoffices and Post Roads, and perhaps Aldrich, of Illinois will head the Committee on Territories. General Henderson is spoken of for the chairmanship on two of the most important committees. Robinson will have a place on Appropriations as well as Major Butterworth, of Ohio. The house was decorated with flowers and the orchestra, disposed in sylvan dell, dis-coursed sweet music. Many elegant presents were displayed, among them magnificent diamonds from the mother of the bride and diamonhs and silver from Mrs. and Mr. W. R. Vanderbilt, and Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, D. O. Mills and others. It was reported that the father of the bride had presented Mrs. Webb his present residence on Fifth avenue, also a check for $250,-

The bridal couple started on a tour and will return in January when a reception will be given in the new residence of the bride's parents.
